

HR Technology & Outsourcing

Lockton's HR Technology & Outsourcing practice exists to assist you in reducing the frustration, anxiety, and costs stemming from the technology that runs your organization. Lockton helps employers research, purchase, implement, and manage the HR technologies that directly affect and serve your employees.

What Sets Lockton Apart

Decades of Industry Experience

We bring you significant experience working both in HR as practitioners as well as by serving HR's needs from within vendor organizations.

Vendor-Neutral Makes All the Difference

Lockton works exclusively on your behalf as your advocate in the marketplace. Our consultation is based upon what will work best for your organization and is enhanced by our experiences with clients across the nation.

We Expand Your Resources

Outsourcing can be an option to off-load noncore transactions as well as gain access to additional technical resources from your vendor(s).

Functional Knowledge and Expertise

As HR has become more strategic, it also has become more specialized. Lockton can help you implement and automate cutting-edge HR services.

SERVICES

- Situational Analysis
- Vendor Selection (contracting assistance)
- Implementation Oversight
- Project Management
- Change Management
- Vendor Management

Reducing Costs and Risk

We can also help you reduce liabilities around regulatory compliance, disaster recovery, and security by shifting responsibility, where appropriate, to vendors with economies of scale in their infrastructure.
