

HR Technology & Outsourcing

IMPLEMENTATION OVERSIGHT

Transforming core support systems can be a daunting challenge.

Lockton stands by your side during the implementation of your HR technology or outsourcing solutions. We will manage any issues that arise, giving you confidence that the expectations set by vendors during the sales process will become reality with your newly implemented systems.

Lockton Can Help.

Today, business is about doing more with less. In HR, it means fewer resources and staff. It also means less time between major projects—even when it comes to complex projects like installing or upgrading a core business system.

Keeping stakeholders fully informed and engaged with an ever-changing project is a challenge. Lockton offers you a team of experts that can help lead your critical implementation projects.

- ❖ Lockton is your advocate during vendor-led implementations, ensuring the full range of the vendor's organizational resources are at your disposal.
- ❖ We help ensure your project stays in scope and on budget through issue tracking and key deliverable review.

- ❖ Lockton will help you keep all stakeholders fully informed and aware of developments, issues, and successes.
- ❖ When Lockton assists with your implementation, you can count on us to:
 - Establish a project-steering committee.
 - Provide guidance so solutions are defined using industry best practices.
 - Review key project deliverables.
 - Provide and source third-party expertise as needed.
